Our brilliant Year 6 team!

Really proud of our Year 6s this week—it's been a long week! They have been amazing and showed superb resilience to tackle the tests in their usual diligent way. We even had an LA visitor to check the SATs were being administered correctly—and she was super impressed with their attitude and the general atmosphere around school. A day at the park today for some relaxation and fun!

Lots of lovely artwork going on this week!

Sports Day—Wednesday 22nd May

KS2 (classes 3, 4 and 5) 9.15 start
 KS1 (Classes 1 and 2) 11.00 start

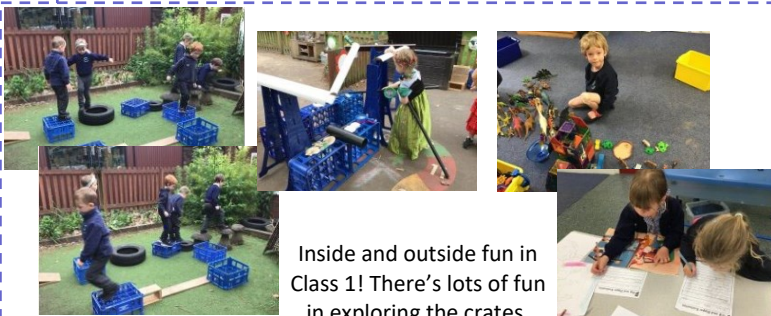

Sports colours were sent home last week via email so please check your junk if you didn't receive it. Blues—wear school sports T-shirt; whites—any white t-shirt; red—plain red t-shirt please. If you have any spares—do bring in for the uniform shop.

Please bring a chair / blanket for yourself and come round onto the main field for the start of your child's key stage. . Both will be about an hour-ish—KS2 is usually a bit longer.

There's a few bits and bobs for sale, so please bring along a little cash to buy raffle tickets, plants and / or cakes!

Raffle tickets will be sold—but prizes will be drawn later in the term at the Bingo night.

PLANT SALE—Do you have any seedlings or plants you could pot on and donate to sell on a plant stall at the sports day?! Also if you'd like to help out and man the stall before and after either sports day session please let us know.

Inside and outside fun in Class 1! There's lots of fun in exploring the crates, tyres and guttering—you can make all sorts! Pictures next week from Hoo Zoo!
