Half term break—back on Monday 3rd June!

We hope that you are able to have some family time over the bank holiday weekend and into next week—we fully appreciate that for many of you it's a normal work week with the added complication of the children being at home!!

Look out for a few dates straight away after half term:

School photos—individual and sibling pictures as you wish
BINGO night for the whole family—bring along the children and family / friends for a fun evening with prizes

Talent Show Auditions

Little did we know when we organised this, how excited the children would become!! Apologies if the auditions this week have caused any performance nerves at home!!

From the other year groups (voted by the children):

Class 1: James—dancing; Harper—dancing

Class 2: Hudson—gym; Evie, Aurelia, Tallulah, Harper, Nellie—singing and dancing

Year 3: Harrison—guitar; Flora—magic; Ellie and Isaac—singing duet

Year 4: Erica—keyboard; Lucie—singing solo

Year 5: Millie—taekwondo; Nate—guitar

The Talent Show will be held on Thursday 11th July, in the main school hall, and will be led and organised by the Year 6 children. There will be judges and prizes! It will be a 5.30 start—and tickets and further details will be sent out in due course. I imagine it will last about an hour. Parents of children from other year groups will be invited to watch too!

Sports Day—new date

I think this is the first year that the weather has beaten us! Such a shame and I know it is a pain for parents to get additional time off and for us to reorganise!

New date: Friday 21st June—am.

Classes 3,4 and 5 - 9.15am; Classes 1 and 2—11.00am

Followed by a family picnic (weather permitting!) 12.15—1.00pm

We have decided to put the Sports Day into our Careers week, as it has a focus on sport and leisure. We have also then planned a family picnic for after the sports events—in the same way that we have had picnics in previous years. Parents bring their own picnic and the children can either have one from school or share yours!! Parents coming for the KS2 sports day at 9.15 would be welcome to stay to watch KS1 or pop back at 12.15 for lunch!

More details to follow after half term.

Class Attendance Winners!

Each week we have a class trophy in recognition of the class with the highest attendance. It's a good way to celebrate attendance as a school and a bit of fun that the children enjoy!

This week the winning class is: Class 4

Half term winners are Class 5 (Mrs Lingham will be jubilant!!!)
